Founder & Company Director of Walk Talk Action

Welcome our Founder (left) Teri Elder.

Teri started WTA up officially September 2019. She used her lived experienced - in all, of the five areas WTA supports – to overcome life traumas and turn them in to life lessons and see a silver lining. Teri joined the Armed Forces as a Combat Medic straight from school starting her career at just 16 years old. After a few years Teri left the Services and began a whirlwind of different life experiences from working in Puy, as a Children's Rep and Nanny, bought a euro rail ticket to travel around Europe, went to College, University and gained several qualifications including Outdoor Education BSc(hons) and Sport & Exercise Science BSc. Later she battled mental health difficulties including PTSD, postnatal depression & psychosis, anxiety and ended up having several breakdowns which led to being on the verge of being sectioned.

Fast forward some years, Walk Talk Action was officially born, we have been able to help hundreds of people back to a better state of mind through walking, talking and taking action. It is unique in regard to how we deliver our support as it depends on each individual we help as we all have different needs - therefore no two participants are the same. We deliver different activities to help bring people out of their comfort zones and highlight new skills and abilities. All we request from anyone that chooses to sign up with us, is that you are ready to make the changes necessary to help you back to a better state of mind.

About Us

Originally founded in 2016 WTA became official as a non-profit community interest company in September 2019, Walk Talk Action have provided walks, signposting, retreats, and programmes to people in Stoke-on-Trent & Staffordshire. However, we have reached as far as Plymouth and West Yorkshire during in lockdown when we were online.

Our Mission

Our mission is to help those with: Depression (including postnatal depression) & Anxiety, Midlife crisis, Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), Isolation & Loneliness and/or are a Veteran; as well as general health and well-being.

We encourage you to explore who you are through a unique programme tailored to each individuals' needs, which in turn leads to a better state of mind.

Our Vision

We want to get more people outside walking and talking to improve their knowledge about how we can all help ourselves using different coping techniques and methods of working through their problems, one step at a time.

1. We WALK to help improve our state of mind and to get out of the house away from the four walls which surround us each and every day. It helps with social anxiety and improves the overall wellbeing of a person with spending just 15 minutes outside.
2. We TALK to release the ambush that we carry daily in our heads, bills, kids...life in general our very own burdens that weigh us down are released like clouds being blown away in the sky. We listen but are not counsellors therefore would always recommend you see your GP or a healthcare professional to seek further help if this was required.
3. We take ACTION to improve our overall state of mind by acknowledging our strengths and weaknesses which help us create a plan of action – a way forward. We all have a talent and Walk Talk Action can help you find yours – Only if YOU are willing and ready to make the changes necessary

Our Programmes

1. We offer weekly group walks to get people outside to enjoy nature. Being outside surrounded by nature is proven to reduce not only your stress, but your mood, overall mental health, and well-being.
2. Establishing community connections with our service users, all community members, and groups. What is important is that everyone knows what is available to them and where their target groups are. We pride ourselves in working with other organisations to make us stronger as a service but also for the people that need us. This could include ensuring that a person is able to achieve their own personal goals such as set up their own business, or gain employment or work experience.
3. Our 'Brew Up Catch Up' sessions (including Coffee mornings at St. Claire's Church & Veteran's Drop in's at Oulton Heath Farm Retreat*) is another way we bring different members of our community together to meet, network and learn new skills. We have had volunteers from the Regent College who make refreshments and engage in activities as part of life skills for their own personal development. We aim to connect members of the community to help build and strengthen relationships within those communities which will benefit everyone. We also aim to be semi self-sustaining by creating a range of saleable items as well as mental health/ anxiety/sensory packs and fidget toys.

4. Ten-step specialist programme, offers a bespoke, individualised walk, talk, action plan for each member to set goals and work towards them through a range of therapeutic programmes, approaches, activities and engagement with partner services and guest speakers. The aim is to use the programme to help people work out what their goals are and how they can achieve them in order to be healthier and more active members of

5. Our Oulton Farm Retreat* is where our Veterans drop in is located in a scenic countryside beauty spot overlooking Barlaston Downs Bank and on a clear day you are able to see the Wrekin in Shropshire (8 miles from Telford). In the summer months our belle tents go up to create a space of pure zen and tranquillity. It is also a space where some of our programmes and goals come together. A space where communities members can engage in different programmes, access support, meet other people or services (upon request), learn new skills and get involved in something active. It is in the heart of a working farm with lots of open space to walk, talk and be active.

4. We have our Fen Park Site which was gifted to us and we are created a wilderness area for people to come along and enjoy. Bringing there skills and knowledge to create a beautiful community space including bushcraft/fieldcraft area, sensory spots to take five and enlighten your senses with the smells of the different flowers, herbs and scenic viewing locations. Not only this but we have a mapped interactive walking route exclusively for WTA participants and volunteers which include the five ways of well being incorporating all the senses and encouraging positivity. We welcome all volunteers to help us with this project as with all our sites.

Our Partners & Awards

We have a selection of trusted partnership which we use to signpost participants to if required. If you are unsure of who these are or if a person asks you about them, please contact Teri Elder or a member of Walk Talk Action staff to ensure the correct information is given. Some of the partnerships and professional bodies we are part of are shown at the bottom of each page of this booklet.

Volunteer Expectations – Attendance

Your attendance is important to the running of each of our programmes. If you are unable to attend a session, contact your programme leader. We ideally prefer 24hours notice but appreciate this is not always possible. In the case of an emergency where possible try to inform us prior to the start of a session.

Every volunteer is expected to attend their session on time and stay for the duration of the session. We rely on you as we would any member of the team.

Bad weather: if bad weather is going to affect an activity and mean a change of location or we will have to cancel a session we will contact you via the WhatsApp group to keep you informed. So, please make sure to check your messages or contact us to confirm sessions will go ahead as planned if you are unsure.

Volunteer Expectations – Dress Code

As many of our sessions are outdoors and/practical it is important to wear the right kit. We would recommend walking boots, waterproofs for the wet weather and a pair of wellies for the farm. When working indoors most staff are found to be wearing the same with less mud!

Just remember it is not as much fun when you are cold or wet all day.

If you require any help with uniform, please speak to a member of the team.

Volunteer Expectations – Health and Safety

Health and safety can often be seen as red tape which can stop you running activities, however the whole point of it is to make them more accessible for people as well as more enjoyable. It is everyone's responsibility to work safely and report any risks; and on a day-to-day basis you will probably have all of the skills necessary to judge if something is dangerous. On occasions when it requires more than common sense then it is important to ensure you know who is responsible for health and safety in the group and have seen the risk assessments and are familiar with the policy.

Volunteer Expectations – Social media and Images

Walk Talk Action uses social media and the use of images to promote the work that it does, raise awareness, campaign, and reach people. We recognise that our volunteers may also have personal social media accounts and wish to share the work that we do. We request in order to protect the work of Walk Talk Action that volunteers do not post any disparaging/defamatory statements about: Walk Talk Action; its staff, service users, volunteers, stakeholders, or partners (past or present). If you plan on using an image or a quote from someone on social media, ensure you have their consent and speak to Teri Elder to complete the necessary paperwork before posting. Do not tag anyone into posts or images, as that person may have a no social media/image attached to their file. Do not set up a social media account which represents Walk Talk Action. Remember you must respect everyone's confidentiality and be conscious of data protection at all times. This could include unpublished details of our work for funders for example.

Volunteer Expectations – Conflict of Interest

A conflict of interest is any situation in which the personal interests or interests owed to another body, of a volunteer run counter to those of the Walk Talk Action. Conflicts of interest occur in those situations where an individual volunteer stands to gain directly or indirectly through engagement in activities which may potentially affect the Walk Talk Action adversely. It will also occur if that individual is engaged with an organisation which has aims incompatible to those of Walk Talk Action. It is the personal duty of the volunteer to declare any conflict of interest to Walk Talk Action.

Examples include: furthering their own financial interests by taking on private work with a service user; discriminate against a service user due to political or religious views or allegiances; refer people to the associated agencies you have a connection with; unfairly benefit a service user you have a connection to ie. related to.

Volunteer Expectations – Code of Conduct

All volunteers are expected to follow the code of conduct by:

- Performing their volunteer role to the best of their ability in a safe, efficient and competent way;
- Following Walk Talk Action's policies and procedures as well as any instructions or directions given to them;
- Acting honestly, and with integrity;
- Treating others with fairness, equality, and respect;
- Providing sufficient notice when they will not be available so that alternative arrangements can be made;
- Acting in a way that is in line with the purpose and values of the organisation, that enhances its work;
- Communicating respectfully and honestly at all times;
- Observing safety procedures, including any obligations concerning the safety, health and welfare of other people;
- Reporting any health and safety concerns;
- Declaring any interests that may conflict with their role or the work of Walk Talk Action (e.g. business interests or employment). If any doubt arises as to what constitutes a conflict of interest, volunteers may seek guidance from their line manager;
